Call to Worship

* Opening Hymn

To You, O God, All Creatures Sing

(page 7)

* Responsive Sentence

From Psalm 96

One: Sing to the Lord, bless God's name; tell of God's salvation from day to day.

All: Declare God's glory among the nations, the Lord's marvelous works among all the peoples.

One: For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; the Lord is to be revered above all gods.

All: For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the Lord made the heavens.

One: Honor and majesty are before God; strength and beauty are in God's sanctuary.

All: Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

* Response of Praise

Summoned by the God

NETTLETON

Sum-moned by the God who made us rich in our di-ver-si-ty, gath-ered in the name of Je-sus, rich-er still in u-ni-ty: Let us—bring the gifts that dif-fer and, in—splen-did, var-ied ways, sing a new church in-to be-ing, one in faith and love and praise.

* Invocation and Lord's Prayer

You who called light and life into being, create in us the light of knowledge though thought and reflection; reveal to us the diversity of life from life's diverse experience of you; instill in us the love and grace we encounter in the one who taught us to pray ...Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

John 1:43-51

Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you,¹ you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Come Home
Clifton Vogt

arr. Craig Courtney

Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling,
calling for you and for me;
See, on the portals He's waiting and watching,
watching for you and for me.
Come home, come home,
you who are weary, come home.

Why should we tarry when Jesus is pleading,
pleading for you and for me?
Why should we linger and heed not His mercies,
mercies for you and for me.
Come home, come home,
you who are weary, come home.

O for the wonderful love He has promised,
promised for you and for me!
Though we have sinned, He has mercy and pardon,
pardon for you and for me.
Come home, come home,
you who are weary, come home.

Anthem

Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee

Howard Helvey

Jesus, the very thought of Thee
with sweetness fills the breast;
but sweeter far Thy face to see,
and in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing,
no heart can frame,
nor can the memory find,
a sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
the Savior of mankind.

O hope, of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
to those who fall, how kind thou art:
to those who seek! How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find?
Ah, this nor tongue nor pen can show;
the love of Jesus, what it is,
none but who love Him know.

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
as Thou our prize wilt be;
in Thee be all our glory now,
and through eternity.

HOSTED BY

PLYMOUTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

& UNIVERSITY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Summer Choir

Have you been wanting to sing in the choir? Well, come on! For the months of June, July, and August, the choir will learn a simple anthem Sunday morning at 10 AM in the choir room before worship. If you are interested, please send an email to Henry at musicdirector@plymouth-church.net and he'll have music ready for you. No robes or processing - just sharing your voice!

Pizza and Cleaning!

Join us Wednesday, June 22 at 6 pm for a final clean-up of our church before the NACCC annual meeting. We'll order pizza and spend a couple hours preparing our beautiful church for visitors.

Dinner at the Wichita Art Museum

Please join us for the NACCC conference final dinner gala on Tuesday, June 28th! We have limited openings, so please contact KD in the church office this week for tickets. We will join the conference attendees at the museum for art viewing, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and live jazz music starting at 5:30 p.m. At 7:00 p.m. we will have a wonderful dinner catered by LaTour. Later that evening we will be entertained with Broadway show tunes sung by Karen and Tim Robu and Paul Ellis-Jackson from UCC. Tickets are $35 per person if you have purchased Word and Note tickets or $55 per person if you are just attending the Tuesday night dinner. We hope to see you there!

Plymouth Hallway Art Gallery

The art of Stephen Perry, a fourth generation Wichitan, will be on display in our hallway for the next several weeks. Stephen has shown with us before and is always popular with Plymouth members and friends. A graduate of North High School and Kansas State University, Steve's career began in landscape architecture with an early interest in pen and ink sketches. After his retirement from his firm McCluggage Van Sickle and Perry, he began fine art printmaking in his Riverside home. In his Backroads Press studio he is currently working with photo-polymer plates in relief prints highlighted with watercolor. In 2011 he published his second book, "Wander the Kansas Flint Hills in Words and Images", which features 12 original prints and writings about his favorite part of Kansas. He continues to exhibit at art fairs and galleries throughout the region.

Plymouth Hallway Display Case

Hanna Eastin grew up in NE Tennessee, went to undergrad in Illinois, and moved to Newton, KS in 2001. Since then she has been a studio assistant, a gallery, bookshop, and coffeeshop co-owner, artist-in-residence, adjunct faculty, and professor of art. In the middle of all this she completed an MFA at Fort Hays State University and learned how to test wild clay, among several other things. She is currently finishing her 13th year on the faculty at Hesston College, after which, she will move to Salt Lake City full time to pursue partnership, parenting, substitute teaching, and studio work. With her partner, Cristi, and two young boys, they have been learning the great skill of family road tripping back and forth to Kansas to finish work at Hesston College, spend time with the boys' dad, and see the sights between Utah and Kansas.

Which brings us to Hanna's clay work. In the past 8 years or so, Hanna's great passion has become finding and digging wild clays. Much of her work now consists of a stoneware made from Kansas clay from the area surrounding Wilson Lake and glazed with many different clays from Utah, Wyoming, and most recently a great, crusty find from roadside I70 in western Colorado. As a person who has always found great solace in Place, and now embarking on what feels like an awful lot of change, locating and testing these very Place Specific materials has given Hanna great joy.

She makes small sculptures, drinking vessels, storage jars, and decorative objects like platters and wall tiles out of these materials, often incorporating clays from customers' own property, to commemorate time and place and human connection.

The Plymouth Covenant

Believing in Jesus Christ, the Interpreter of God to humankind, we accept His teachings as the guiding principles of our lives and consecrate ourselves and our church to their fulfillment. We therefore join in covenant, one with another, to worship, work, and serve together that we may express through our Church and our individual lives the love and faith taught by Jesus Christ.
